Eat Drink SF

Presented by the Golden Gate Restaurant Association, Eat Drink SF is a culinary festival that spans restaurant tasting events and cooking classes. Try one of the two “grand tastings” at Fort Mason for an indulgent marathon of nibbles and sips from established and emerging local restaurants, including hot newcomers Belga, ICHI Kakiya, and Mourad. Classes available include learning the secrets of pairing grilled meats and beer, the art of a well-balanced cocktail, and a crash course in blind-tasting wine.
